Medal Program Requirements

Updated: 2009-10-01

General Requirements

- Beginning with results from February 2009 onward.
- An individual must have a current USEA Membership at the time scores are achieved. This includes the Beginner Novice level.
- A horse must be registered as required for the level at which it is competing. Horses competing at Beginner Novice must have at least a USEA Limited Horse Registration at the time scores are achieved.
- No cross-country jump penalties are permitted for a score to be used in fulfillment of earning a medal, and all three phases must be completed.
- The same score for on level may be applied toward the next level.
- Venue is defined by location of the event, not the competition. For example, to earn a medal that requires scores be obtained at three separate venues, an individual could not submit scores from three separate competitions all located at the Kentucky Horse Park.

Beginner Novice

- Bronze Medal - Must finish on a score of 50 or less three times - scores must be obtained at two different venues
- Silver Medal - Must finish on a score of 45 or less three times - scores must be obtained at three different venues
- Gold Medal - Must finish on a score of 35 or less three times - scores must be obtained at three different venues
